Ninth Inning.

Bates robbed Devlin of a two-bagger
by a wonderful catch in left field.
Doyle singled to right field. Merkle batted for Nicklin and Doyle was forced at second base. Dahlen to Ritchey on his hit. Crandall fled to Bates. NO RUNS.

Lochietter, of Chicago, who ascended from Chicago, Ill., in the balloon Chicago, last evening, had landed at Clear Lake, S. Dak.

The Telegram reads:

"Landed at Clear Lake, S. D., packing the balloon. Home about Thursday."
"O. L. BURMAUGH."

It is estimated the balloon travelled 50 miles in 10 hours. The balloon hours it covered more distance in less time than the swiftest flight of any of the nine balloons that contested in the international balloon race, starting from here last October.
